Programme Specification

(Updated July 2017)

Introduction: What are programme specifications?

Programme specifications focus on single programmes of study, and outline the intended knowledge, understanding, skills and attributes of a student successfully completing that programme. A programme specification also gives details of teaching and assessment methods as well as linking the programme to the Framework for Higher Education Qualifications and any subsequent professional qualification and career path.

Since the College gained Taught Degree Awarding Powers in January 2017 it validates the programmes taught at Rose Bruford College and as part of the validation process, the College produces approved programme specifications for all the programmes that it offers. On Some programmes, The University of Manchester validates the award for students who have opted to remain on a University degree.

This programme specification forms one part of a set of different types of document about your programme that also includes the prospectus, module specifications and information on the College's website and VLE. The Programme Specification is published on the College's website.

There may be concern that 'specifying' what a student will have learnt at the end of the programme might inhibit innovation within that programme. For this reason it is important not to see programme specifications as 'tick lists'. They offer broad indications of the types of things students might be expected to learn and the types of skills and abilities they might be expected to gain.

2. AIMS OF THE PROGRAMME

The Costume Production programme will provide you with the understanding and skills needed to pursue a career in the production of historical and contemporary costumes and accessories. Our aim is to produce graduates who not only have an appreciation of the expertise and knowledge required to be a successful practitioner, but who also possess the vision and determination to become leaders in the field of costume production. Good professional practice requires an enquiring and analytical approach, and the programme will also provide you with a range of study and research skills that will drive your development as an enterprising and interpretative artist and craftsman.

The programme aims to:

01.	develop you as a costume production specialist with a comprehensive grounding in performance practice as a creative, aesthetic and communicative process, able to respond to the demands of the rapidly-changing theatre and performance industries
02.	give you an understanding of live performance in its business, cultural, social, ethical, political, historical and theoretical contexts
03.	give you the artistic, technical and organisational skills appropriate to the costume production specialist
04.	develop your critical and analytical skills
05.	enable you to make an effective, responsive and innovative contribution to the performance industries

3. INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES OF THE PROGRAMME

A. Knowledge and Understanding

On successful completion of the programme you will be able to:

		Benchmark
A1	locate the costume production specialist within specific historical, current and emerging performance traditions, processes and practices	DDP 7.12.1,2
A2	articulate the cultural, creative and aesthetic values and principles that inform a range of types of performance	DDP 7.12.2,3,6
A3	locate different types of performance and their audiences in their social and cultural contexts, and describe economic and business environments in which they occur	DDP 7.12.3,4,5
A4	demonstrate an awareness of issues related to sustainability and the environment within the performance industries	DPP7.12.7, (6)
A5	demonstrate and apply a comprehensive knowledge of industry practice, protocols and health and safety regulations relevant to the costume production specialist	DPP7.12.4,5,7

Learning & Teaching Processes (to allow you to achieve intended learning outcomes)
Much of your learning will be through practical activities, where you will be encouraged to both 'think' and 'do'. Lectures and small group seminars deliver basic principles and knowledge that underpin the work of the costume production specialist. You will consolidate this through independent study. You will contextualise your learning in projects, work-based learning opportunities and practical presentations. These range from studio based presentations with a peer audience in order to present a specific aspect of the curriculum to fully mounted productions in a professional space with a public audience. Tutor support is available to advise you throughout the programme, but you will become increasingly independent of tutor guidance as you develop your ability to set your own questions, research tasks and research strategies. Resources at Rose Bruford allow you significant practice time and electronic / online resources (through the VLE) are available to aid you in gaining further knowledge.

Assessment (of intended learning outcomes)
Your achievement of the learning outcomes will be assessed through a combination of practical exercises, presentations, reports and written submissions that demonstrate your knowledge within the context of professional practice. Practical assessments contribute to a diverse range of assessment types and may include both internal and external projects and presentations. Practical work may be accompanied by a report or commentary that allows you to explicitly demonstrate your achievement of the learning outcomes.

B. Intellectual Skills

On successful completion of the programme you will be able to:

		Benchmark
B1	apply critical reasoning in the evaluation and analysis of information from a range of sources	DDP 7.14.1,6
B2	devise and implement a research strategy for a range of different projects including a sustained independent enquiry	DDP 7.14.2
B3	Identify and articulate appropriate questions and approaches in order to find creative solution to artistic, practical and conceptual problems	DDP 7.14.2,3
B4	formulate complex arguments and express them in visual, written, oral or other forms	DDP 7.14.1
B5	reflect critically upon and evaluate your work and the work of others using a variety of conceptual frameworks	DDP 7.14.6

Learning & Teaching Processes
You will develop your intellectual skills through practical projects and workshops as well as through lectures and seminars. You will be required to respond to a variety of briefs that may not have a predetermined solution, which will prepare you for the situations and scenarios that you are likely to encounter in your professional life. The principles of scholarly referencing, language, structure and research are delivered formally through lectures and seminars, but achievement of the learning outcomes also relies on significant amounts of group and independent study and project work. You will receive frequent formative and summative feedback.

Assessment
Your achievement of the learning outcomes will be assessed through written work, portfolios, research projects and small group and individual presentations. You will be required to demonstrate these skills through critical reflection on practical activities in reports, commentaries and presentations, and through reflective journals which evaluate your developing practice as a costume production specialist.

C. Practical Skills

On successful completion of the programme you will be able to:

		Benchmark
C1	select and deploy appropriate techniques and processes for the cutting, manufacture and finishing of garments, in response to a given brief	DDP 7.13.1-4 AD 4.3.3, 4.4.5
C2	select and deploy appropriate techniques and processes for the dyeing, distressing and decoration of fabrics and garments, taking account of both aesthetic and practical requirements	DDP 7.13.1-4 AD 4.4.2
C3	select and deploy appropriate technical and interpersonal skills for the fitting of costumes	DDP 7.14.5 AD 4.3.3, 4.4.2
C4	manage effectively and efficiently a wardrobe department, including its physical, human and financial resources, in response to a given brief and production environment	DDP 7.13.2, 7.14.4 AD 4.3.5
C10	analyse, evaluate and adapt your contribution in response to the needs of a range of performance contexts, and to changes in the creative process	DDP 7.13.3-6 AD 4.3.4
C11	apply concepts to your practice	DDP 7.12.6 AD 4.4.1

Learning & Teaching Processes
Practical skills are gained through a variety of learning activities guided by both resident and guest practitioners. Your learning in lectures, practical classes and small group seminars is consolidated through numerous practical projects with students from your own and other programmes within the College. These practical projects are the laboratory for your learning and may be workshop, studio/theatre based or in a professional environment through work-based learning. Use of the College's extensive resources means you are offered opportunities to develop your practical skills through focused independent study.

Assessment
The learning outcomes are assessed through tutor assessment of your projects and through the submission of reports, commentaries and evaluations which demonstrate the achievement of the practical skill outcomes. You will also submit creative and technical documents, proposals and pitches for assessment. Some projects are deliberately developed with built-in ambiguities, ensuring you develop the ability to adapt to dynamic and changing circumstances. In addition, some skills-based technical competencies are assessed on a pass/fail basis for some modules at levels 4 and 5. The competencies required vary between modules, but will set a baseline competence appropriate to professional practice for a range of relevant skills and processes.

6. STUDENT INDUCTION, SUPPORT AND DEVELOPMENT

Student induction and support take place at both the programme and College level.

At the programme level:

- You receive a Student Handbook at Registration.
- Each module throughout the programme is introduced with a briefing by the module coordinator.
- You are allocated a personal tutor from the programme team, to provide both academic and pastoral support.
- Peer learning and mentoring, both within a year group and programme and between year groups and programmes, are intrinsic to the programme's learning and teaching strategy.
- You will receive written feedback on all assessment tasks, and will be debriefed in a tutorial following the majority of practical projects, to encourage reflection on practice and to identify future learning goals.

At the College level:

- Welfare advice and counselling is available to all students.
- A Specialist Support and Equality Officer is available to all students (students are contacted at admissions stage and invited to disclose any disabilities).
- Dyslexia support is available.
- You will take part in the College's Personal Development Planning scheme. At key points during the programme, you will discuss your personal and professional development with a programme tutor, and plan future action.
- You will be introduced to the Learning Resources Centre at induction, and receive both targeted and ongoing research skills and information literacy instruction and support during the remainder of your programme.
- Ongoing academic support is available through the specialist Academic Support Team, and through on-line support materials.
- Placements operate within the College's Placement Policy, to ensure that you, employers and tutors have a common understanding of the purpose of the placement and of their various responsibilities.

The programme is designed to be developmental; each successive level represents a distinct phase in your development, and the level Learning outcomes reflect this. At Level 4, induction and study support equip you for degree-level study, while regular tutor contact with core programme staff ensures that you are aided in putting all aspects of your studies into the context of the live performance industry and your developing professional practice.

At Level 5, projects are more complex and demand greater personal responsibility; associated tutorials will both guide you through projects and encourage reflection and contextualisation.

Placements and studies of a variety of industry contexts will enable you to assess the appropriateness of different approaches to given situations.

At Level 6, you are expected to be a self-directed learner; again regular tutorials associated with specific projects will guide you and ensure that your learning is appropriately contextualised.

Through all three levels, Personal Development Planning will frame your learning in individual and professional terms.

8. CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

The criteria for admission is set out on the College website and prospectus.

9. PROGRESSION AND ASSESSMENT REGULATIONS

Please refer to Rose Bruford College Undergraduate Academic Regulations.

10. MECHANISM FOR PROGRAMME REVISION The programme is regularly reviewed through the College's annual programme monitoring process. As part of this process, the Programme Committee receives feedback from students, external examiners and academic staff. Recommendations for any revisions to the programme can be discussed as part of this annual monitoring process.

Any proposed modifications by the programme team should be discussed with the Head of School and Director of Learning, Teaching & Curriculum Development. They should then be sent for consideration by the relevant External Examiner. The proposed modifications, together with the completed proforma, will then be sent to the Learning, Quality & Standards Committee.
