

Rose Bruford College Summer Masterclasses Terms and Conditions

General

- The College reserves the right to amend, withdraw or cancel any course. If the College cancels a course you have booked onto your fee will be fully refunded;
- All courses are subject to a minimum number of students and will not be guaranteed until this number is reached;
- The College reserves the right to refuse admission on to any of our programmes;
- It is strongly recommended that all students insure themselves to cover the loss of any costs incurred in the event of cancellation, illness or travel problems, for which the College cannot accept any liability;
- Fees are non-returnable once a student has started the course;
- All fees must be paid in full prior to the start of the course;
- Full fees will be refunded for cancellations within two weeks of booking;
- In the event of a cancellation after two weeks from the booking date, a sum of £100 will be retained to cover administration costs;
- The College does not offer deferments for courses not attended.
- Please dress in comfortable clothes even when working online or as instructed in the course information

Online Masterclasses and Workshops

- Rose Bruford College online masterclasses and workshops will take place using Zoom. A Zoom link will be sent to you before the masterclass with joining instructions;
- We advise you to access Zoom via a laptop or desktop computer rather than a phone. We also suggest you test your audio, visual and internet connection through Zoom, before joining the course;
- We recommend you find a quiet room or space with no other people present. You may need room to move around to take part in the online masterclasses and workshops;
